

Military & Veteran Success Center

March 2017

“You just don’t luck into things as much as you’d like to think you do. You build step by step, whether it’s friendships or opportunities.” - Barbara Bush

Throughout your time at UNL, take advantage of networking as a strategy to reveal more opportunities and more possibilities. Networking starts with a mindset and an intention to discover, explore, and be more open to what you may encounter. It’s about helping others and helping yourself.

- Thursday, 9th: Lunch & Learn: Lincoln Industries (internships, jobs, opportunities). For more information visit : <http://www.lincolnindustries.com/>
- Wednesday, 15th: Meet with CBA Academic Advisors for general advising in preparation for summer and fall semester classes (MVSC).
- Thursday, 16th: Professional Service Support at UNL: Meet Barbara Woodhead. Director of services that offer students the opportunity to contribute and participate in the diverse campus experience.
- Wednesday, 29th: UNL’s UPC & SVO will host Colonel David Sutherland, Co-Founder & Chairman of the Easter Seals Dixon Center for Military & Veterans. A presentation and discussion; “The Inspiration of Courage: The Perspective of Reality.” FREE & open to the public.
- Be a Student Veteran Peer Mentor and leader in the development and support of other student veterans and military dependents at UNL. For more information visit:
