Do you have an internship in Washington DC this Summer?

Join the Washington DC Professional Enrichment Academy! This free, value-added program is offered by the University of Nebraska to students with internships in the DC area over the summer. The program consists of unique experiences, guest lectures, and lots of other activities that will help to maximize your time in DC and grow your professional network.

All grades, majors, and internship experiences are welcome. Financial assistance is also available.

Learn more by scanning the QR Code